

Mary Tougas

Mary is the current president of the Colored Pencil Painters Guild (CPPG) in The Villages and an award-winning artist in the CPPG judged shows. Upon retirement, Mary had the opportunity to devote time to her love of creating art. She dabbled in oil, water color, and acrylic paintings before discovering colored pencil. With Colored Pencil she has the ability to create detailed and realistic paintings and she is hooked. Mary enjoys sharing her love of Colored Pencil Painting while helping others learn and has been leading the Fenney and Everglades Colored Pencil workshops for the last 4 years.

Diane Dumas

Diane is a past president of the Colored Pencil Painters Guild (CPPG) in The Villages and a 2-time first place winner in the CPPG judged shows. Diane was an art major in high school, minored in art in college and graduated with a teaching degree. Her first art experience in The Villages was with Colored Pencil and she was immediately captivated. Since moving to The Villages, her focus has been in perfecting her skills as a Colored Pencil Artist and serving various roles in CPPG.

