

JONES, JAN

Jan fell in love with colored pencil painting in 2007 after she moved to The Villages. Realism was an entirely new art experience for her because, before moving to The Villages, she painted large impressionistic and abstract canvases using acrylics and oils. She enjoys learning almost as much as she enjoys painting, so she has taken numerous classes and workshops and continues to devour all the art books she can find. Rarely does a day go by when she doesn't spend some delightful part of it painting with colored pencils or learning about it. She is one of the founding members of The Villages Colored Pencil Painters Guild. She has been teaching colored pencil portraits in The Villages for several years and is now pleased to be able to share her knowledge about portraiture in the Village Art Workshops.
