Karlyn Holman

Karlyn is completely immersed in the world of art. She has had a studio-gallery for 46 years, and enjoys a full schedule of teaching workshops and painting in her studio. Karlyn's watercolor paintings reflect a special kind of exuberance for her native area of Lake Superior and her travels around the world. Her paintings could be described as realism based on abstract structure. She is a popular workshop instructor known for her enthusiastic, innovative and fun teaching techniques. She has illustrated four children's picture books, one illustrated book and four instructional books on watercolor titled Watercolor Fun and Free, Searching for the Artist within, Watercolor-The Spirit of Spontaneity and Watercolor Without Boundaries. Karlyn leads adventurous and instructional on location painting tours all over Europe and on cruises in the Caribbean and has taught watercolor classes in New Zealand, Central America, Mexico, Japan and Ireland. She has an MA in Art from the University of Wisconsin and has taught at the college level for ten years. She makes her home in Washburn, Wisconsin.
