

Libit Jones

Libit is a Texas native who has called St Petersburg home since 1995. She is a well-known artist in the Tampa Bay area and a popular instructor. Although she works in various media, her passion is watercolor. She is a Signature member of the Florida Watercolor Society and a member of the International Society of Experimental Artists (ISEA). She has been accepted into many prestigious shows and won numerous awards. Her paintings are owned by private collectors across the United States, Canada and England.

