Sterling Edwards
CSPWC, TWSA, WPA

Sterling Edwards is a contemporary watermedia master born in Kansas City, Missouri in 1951. He has been teaching national and international painting workshops for the past fifteen years.

In 2007 Sterling was honored to be awarded signature member status in the Canadian Society of Painters in Watercolour (CSPW) and in 2010 he was awarded signature membership status in the Transparent Watercolor Society of America (TWSA).

Sterling was a featured artist in the fall 2001 issue of Watercolor Magic Magazine's Ones to Watch and has been featured in numerous other magazine and newspaper articles. In 2009 he was a featured artist in the book, Best of America Watermedia Artists. He is the author of the best selling North Light book Creating Luminous Watercolor Landscapes, a Four Step Process and is a contributing artist in six other books by various publishers. Sterling is also the designer and creator of a signature line of art products that are marketed worldwide including a custom-designed watercolor palette and multi-media paint brushes.

In 2013 Sterling was proudly accepted by invitation into the International Watercolor Society and in 2015 was awarded lifetime signature membership into the internationally renowned Whiskey Painters of America (WPA), the most unique and exclusive miniature painting society in the world. Highly respected among his peers, he is often commissioned to jury national and international art competitions. His award-winning paintings are in private and corporate collections worldwide. Sterling works from his home studio in Hendersonville, North Carolina, located in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains.
