

Supply List for Ruth's (Rudie's) Workshop

Painting of Cat "Abby"

Prismacolor Pencils—Bring the ones you have. Specific pencils needed are:

Warm greys—all percentages

Cool greys—bring all percentages if you have them

Peach and Light Peach

Black

White

Various browns that you have

Lemon Yellow, Cream, Eggshell, Sand, or similar

Terra cotta and Tuscan red

Sky blue light or powder blue

Indigo blue

Ginger root

Mineral orange plus other light oranges

Slate grey

Olive Green plus other greens

If you don't have some of these, I'll bet someone will share.

Stabilo white and black

Col-erase in red, green or some color other than grey or black

(I will have some extra red Col-erase for you in case you don't have one.)

Graphite transfer paper, tracing paper, Duralar or whatever you use to transfer an image

White or cream masking tape or artist's tape (Scotch tape will suffice.)

Kneadable eraser

Pencil sharpener

Ruler

Value viewers

From previous workshop if you have them: the two cutout squares for isolating sections of painting (Let me know if don't have and I will make some for you.)

Draftsman's or other soft brush to remove pencil debris.

It may be handy to have Scotch tape, colorless blending pencil, scissors, protective sheet of some kind to use under your hand so you do not smear your work.
