

Jennifer Stone Supply list for Making collage and carving stamps and Using in Paintings

- Carving blocks. A soft material, similar to an eraser. These may be in any size you would like to work on. They can be cut down to a size you prefer if you purchase them in a larger block. You may purchase them at an art supply company. (MooCarve is my favorite brand.) It has a very buttery feel. I've also used the very large erasers sold at the Dollar Store in the school supply section. I will have some of these available for purchase if you don't find them.
- Carving tools. One brand is Speedball. Usually sold in a package with various tips. Hobby Lobby or the like, carries them.
- Deli paper, unwaxed. 12 X 12 size . Go online or purchase from local grocery or deli. There are two types of deli paper. Waxed and unwaxed. I prefer the unwaxed and recommend that you use this type. I will explain the differences and why this is preferable. I will provide the deli paper.
- Gelli Plate (optional) don't purchase one, but you may bring it if you have one.
- 12 X 12 canvas (you may bring more than one)
- #300 archer watercolor paper
- Acrylic paint. Does not need to be expensive paint. Craft paint is fine. Various colors. Include black and white. This paint is for making collage.
- Acrylic paint for putting your painting together. I use Golden fluid acrylics and some tube paint. Bring what you like but include black and white for mixing and for painting. NOTE: you can use your good acrylics for making collage as well, I just try to cut costs a bit by mentioning that you can also use craft paint for making collage. Having said that, we all know that good quality paint produces better work. You decide what you'd like to use. ;)
- Brayer. Approximately 4 inch size

- 6 sponge rollers. Sold in paint supply section in Menard's or the like. 3-4 inch size. These are just simple plain rollers. Not furry. They have a short plastic handle. I will have these available for purchase if you don't find them, or bring the wrong roller.
- 4-6 quart zip lock bags
- Any texture tools that you have that will create a pattern.
- Stencils and stamps
- 2 water containers. Larger sizes preferred. At least LARGE Cool Whip size.
- Paper towels
- Palette paper for acrylics
- Wax paper and saran wrap, optional
- Tracing paper 1 piece
- Kleenex. Pop up dispenser box
- Pencil
- Eraser
- Old toothbrush
- Notebook, for taking notes
- 2 white or plain Plastic table cloths (disposable) or poly
- 4-6 small plastic bowls with lids (for mixing paint colors)
- popsicle sticks or something similar for stirring paint
- 2 Spray bottles for water, one with a fine mister and a small windex bottle, thoroughly cleaned and used for water
- 91% alcohol, you may want a small mister bottle to fill with alcohol

- support board-1/2 sheet or full sheet. plexi is good
- 1 foam brush 3-4 inch
- several sheets of peel and stick fun foam
- 1 full sheet of #300 watercolor paper, any kind
- 1 package of white inexpensive tissue paper. Gift bag type.
- 4 kitchen size plastic garbage bags, non scented and no pattern
- Cardboard box for support board for making collage paper. At least 13 X 13 X 6. Try not to go much bigger than this as it will take up too much space on your table. Heavier weight cardboard is preferable. Michael's sells a storage box that is close to this size and is so perfect for this process. I do have a couple I could loan out, but if you could find this item, you will be glad you did!
- BRUSHES: Bring your favorites but include a two inch flat, a one inch flat, small round for details, medium size round of your choice.
- Matte medium, for gluing collage papers to your painting, brush for applying, I use a small flat inexpensive brush.
- 2 small plastic drinking glasses
- Scissors
- Black Sharpie Marker
  - Hair dryer to speed up drying process

NOTE: I am a mixed media artist and am not opposed to artists bringing along any tools or other mediums to use in their paintings, provided they are experienced in using them. I will be teaching the medium your workshop description lists.
